

The South Florida Orff Chapter presents a workshop featuring Gregory Roman

Gregory Roman, joined QuaverMusic.com in 2012 as Key Account Representative for Florida and the Mid-Atlantic States. Prior to his career with Quaver he was a national music consultant in educational publishing since 2001. Gregory is highly sought after as a presenter and clinician on the local, state and national level and is a specialist in general music and choral music pedagogy.

Gregory holds a bachelors and masters degree from the University of South Florida in music performance and education. Gregory was awarded the Florida Music Education Association's Innovation in Education Award for his work incorporating technology into the general music classroom. He was associate conductor of the Gulf Coast Children's Choir in Tampa, and founder and conductor of the Bay Cities Early Music Consort in Tampa. He holds certifications in Orff and Kodaly. Gregory is a professional tenor, conductor and instrumentalist. He resides in St. Petersburg, Florida.

"Orff Process in Quaver's Marvelous World of Music"

Interactivity, teaching strategies and engaging on-line tools – all good news for Orff teachers! The process of engaging students in learning music through the use of speech, singing games, movement, drama and playing instruments is all included in Quaver's hundreds of easy-to-use resources. See how Quaver's brilliantly designed program enables the Orff teacher to plan activities with deliberation while the child is involved spontaneously and unconsciously. Quaver's teaching resources empowers the Orff teacher to gauge, adjust, reflect and even assesses throughout the teaching process. Be prepared to take away activities and inspiration to use in your classroom with the help of Quaver!

Saturday, October 15, 2016, 9:00 am to 1:00 pm (8:30 breakfast)

Boca Raton Elementary School, 103 SW 1st Avenue, Boca Raton, FL 33432.

Directions: Take I-95 to Palmetto Park Road exit. Heading east to SW 2nd Ave. turn right (south). Go 1 $\frac{1}{2}$ blocks, turn left into teacher parking lot on West side of school. Please park in the back of the school.

Cost: Free for Members, $30 for non-members

BRING YOUR LAPTOP!

YOU MUST RSVP for this event, to southfloridaorff@gmail.com

Visit us on Facebook.com to join the event. Check out our Website southfloridaorff.wordpress.com