

Remember to bring your recorder

The South Florida Orff Chapter presents a workshop featuring Chris Judah- Lauder

Chris Judah-Lauder is the immediate Past President of the American Orff-Schulwerk Association. She has had extensive work with students of K-8th grade. Chris is the National Conference Chair for the 2017 AOSA Conference in Fort Worth, Texas. She is an active clinician for in-service staff developments, Orff Schulwerk Chapter workshops, State Music Education Conferences and international workshops. Chris has sixteen publications, including In The Modes, Canya Conga, and her newest, Drum With A Passion. Chris is a senior author for McGraw McMillian and teaches Orff Schulwerk Teacher Education

Levels II and/or III/ Masters at various courses in the United States. You can find out more about Chris on her website www.chrisjudahlauder.com

Saturday, August 26, 2017

9:00 a.m to 1:00 p.m. Join us for breakfast at 8:30

David Lawrence Jr. K- Center, 15000 Bay Vista Boulevard, North Miami, FL 33181

Cost: Included in your $55 Yearly membership, or $30 for non-members.

Please RSVP in order to receive the hand outs. Reply to southfloridaorff@gmail.com

Items will be on sale from West Music. Remember to bring your recorders and your check book.

“Sing, Dance and Play the Collaborative Way !”

Working within a cooperative learning setting can be challenging. Come and learn how Chris prepares students, and teachers as well, to allow for creative noise, and let go of control, so that students can compose, arrange, and improvise in a natural way. Chris will demonstrate lessons for Kindergarten through 6th grade, using circle songs, recorders, xylophones, drums and movement.